

AHALIA SCHOOL OF OPTOMETRY

Ahalia School of Optometry was established with a mission to promote eye care services. It has a strong commitment in Ophthalmic teaching and clinical research in various specialities with an excellent track record of campus placement.

☎ 04923 225126 ✉ aso@ahalia.edu.in

Vision

Healthcare for all in an environment healing campus.

Mission

Our mission is to be an inspirational force in the nation's future healthcare that would assure health and health education of highest possible standards to people of all walks in a safe and pollution free environment.

Courses

- BSc Optometry
(affiliated to Kerala University of Health Sciences)
- Masters of Optometry
(affiliated to Kerala University of Health Sciences)
- Diploma in Ophthalmic Assistance
(affiliated to Directorate of Medical Education)

Scope and Career Options

- Can establish 'Own Optometric practice'
- Can offer clinical services to multinationals, dealing with the manufacturing and distribution of ophthalmic lenses, contact lenses and Ophthalmic instruments.
- Can assist Ophthalmologists in hospitals.
- Can take up a teaching and research as a career in India and abroad.
- Excellent job opportunities overseas

Achievements

- Internship provided at JCI accredited Hospitals in Kerala.
- Association of Schools and colleges of optometry (ASCO) conducts CME's in Kerala in association with Ahalia school of Optometry.
- International Association of Contact lens Educators (IACLE) Resource centre.
- Hands on training in specialty contact lenses.
- Hands on training in low vision aids.
- Comprehensive training in community optometry
- Optometry Council of India (OCI) accreditation
- Practical training in making Optometric instruments.
- Well-equipped library with recent International scientific journals
- Twelve international peer reviewed research publications.

